QUAI DE LA PHOTO PROPOSES 3 SPACES :

- 🌊 The main deck
- 🌊 Exhibition room
- 🌊 The quayside terrace (available for private hire from May to October)

THE MAIN DECK (200 ppl. / 450m²)

Immediately accessible from quays, Quai de la Photo's main deck offers a high degree of transparency from the floating building to the Seine, docks and outdoor spaces.

It can accommodate up to 200 guests over a surface area of 450 m².

EXHIBITION ROOM (90 ppl. / 130 m²)

The 130 m² exhibition room features works by renowned and emerging photographers.

It opens onto the marina, offering a breathtaking view of the exceptional historic boats.

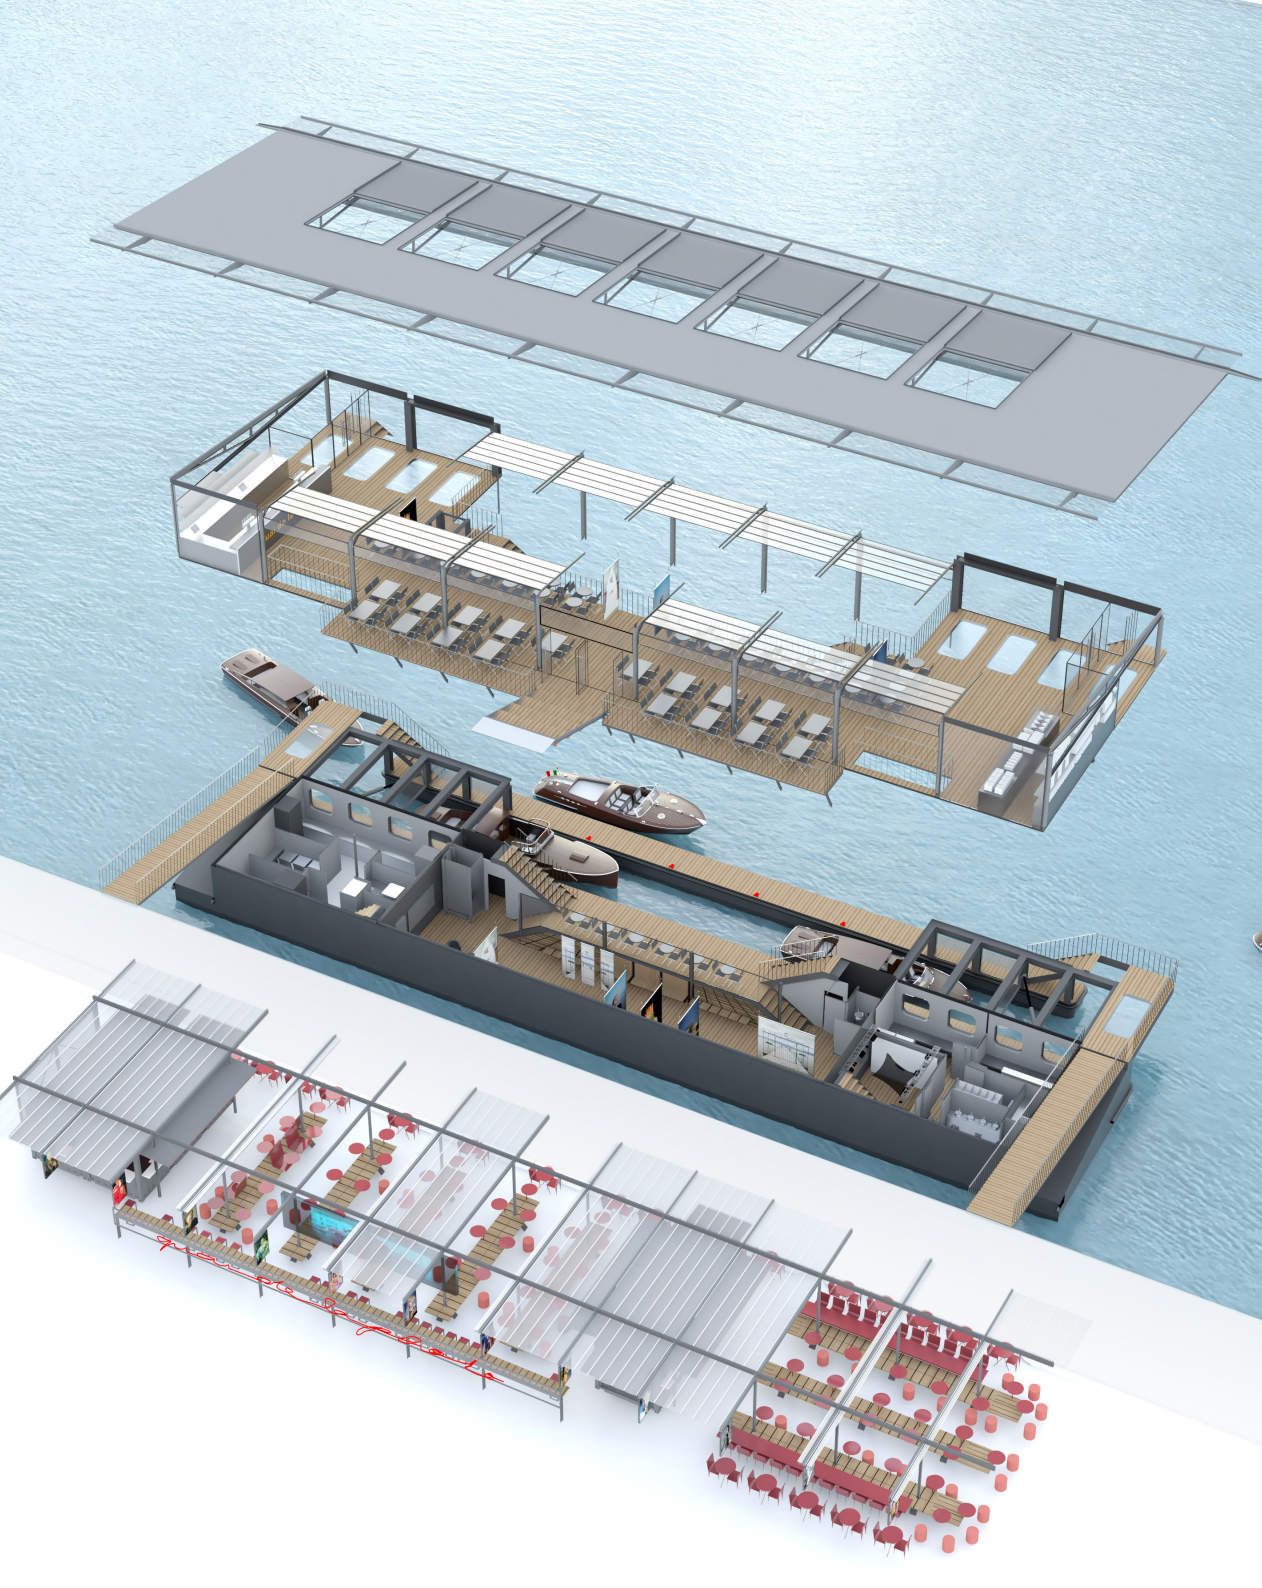

Quai de la Photo offers you the opportunity to organize private cruises aboard these boats for your events.

QUAYSIDE TERRACE (200-400 ppl. / 400 m²)

From May to October, the floating building will be complemented by a large seasonal terrace on the quayside, facing the barge, which will also host the photographic program.

This terrace offers 400 m² of outdoor space for 200 to 400 people, with a stand-alone bar.

POSSIBLE TURNAROUND WITH 4 BOAT :

Zéro de Conduite

100% electric catamaran ferry.

This boat offers a vast covered deck, a panoramic bench at the bow and an aft platform, a veritable balcony overlooking Paris.

Zéro de Conduite can accommodate 12 passengers.

Farö

This 11 meters flagship was built in Sweden in 1935 to designs by the famous naval architect Carl Gustav Pettersson.

The natural elegance and finesse of this boat combine perfectly with the modernity of an all-electric motorization to offer passengers an exceptional experience of comfort and fulfillment. Farö can accommodate 6

Lugano

A 6.50 metres Alpine runabout, built in Zurich in 1966 in partnership with a coachbuilder.

This boat, entirely open to its environment, combines style and flair. It is powered by a powerful internal combustion engine, whose purr alternates with the silence of electric propulsion. Lugano can accommodate 5 passengers.

Murano

An ancient Venetian motoscafo, 9.20 meters long, designed exclusively in mahogany and oak, a symbol of nautical elegance and heir to the naval traditions of Venice.

This boat adapts remarkably well to all circumstances: enjoy delicate intimacy on the aft bench seat, join the crew in the bow, join a group in the cabin with its warm leather benches.

Murano can accommodate 6 passengers.

CURRENT EXHIBITION:

Kate barry — My own space

The Museum Nicéphore Niépce is now sharing the My Own Space exhibition with Quai de la Photo, giving the Parisian public an opportunity to discover the fragile, poetic work of Kate Barry. This exhibition of 80 photos will occupy the two levels of Quai de la Photo for over 3 months, and will run in two phases: from December 15th to February 5th, then from February 7th to March 20th. It's an opportunity to discover the full range of Kate Barry's work through her emblematic projects and favorite themes: melancholy landscapes, fashion, portraits and, in particular, her view of her family....
